WILLIAM AIRD

William Aird was born in Kilmarnock, Scotland, March 3, 1821. He was one of the earliest settlers to our valley, coming to Utah in 1859 and to Heber Valley in 1860. He was a weaver by trade and owned the first spinning wheel and loom in the county.

He married Elizabeth McClain and together they endured the hardships of pioneer life. She helped her husband spin yarn and weave cloth to make clothes for their children and other people. They were the parents of three boys and three girls.

Henry M. Aird took to education not only for himself but to help others. The schools of Wasatch County became fine places of learning under his leadership. Many people in Wasatch County can well thank Henry Aird for their start in educational pursuits.

John W. Aird was graduated from the University of Deseret (Utah). He taught school for five years in Heber, then studied medicine in California. After practicing in Heber for several years he moved to Provo where he established a hospital and practiced surgery.

The girls married in Heber and many of their descendants are among our leading citizens.
